MEMORIAL CITY LAUNCHES KPRC-TV CHANNEL 2 WEATHER CAMERAS

HOUSTON, TX - Memorial City and KPRC-TV Channel 2 (NBC) have partnered to bring two new weather cameras to West Houston this June atop the Nexen Tower, located at 945 Bunker Hill, and the Memorial Hermann Tower, located at 929 Gessner Road.

“We are thrilled to add two permanent weather cameras installed to showcase one of Houston’s major metro centers - Memorial City,” said Jerry Martin, Vice President & General Manager of KPRC-TV Channel 2.

The cameras will display aerial views of Memorial City along the Interstate 10 corridor with the camera on the Nexen Tower capturing Western views and the camera on Memorial Hermann Tower’s 28th floor capturing Eastern views of I-10 and Memorial City. The views from the cameras will appear on each of Channel 2’s eight daily weather segments Monday through Friday as well as each of the four weather segments shown Saturday and Sunday.

“We are proud to be able to share live aerial views of Memorial City during Channel 2’s weathercasts,” said Perry Hicks, Executive Vice President of Corporate Affairs for MetroNational. “As Memorial City continues to flourish and more people live, work, and shop in and around the area, we know the weather cameras will add value to viewers and the newscasts alike.”
