MEMORIAL CITY SEEKS 'HOUSTON'S BEST WORKER' HARD WORKING HOUSTONIANS AWARDED IN SPIRIT OF LABOR DAY HOLIDAY

HOUSTON (August 28, 2015) - Memorial City is proud to debut the 2015 "Houston's Best Worker" contest. To commemorate the Labor Day holiday, Memorial City is seeking nominations for area workers who best exemplify the hard-working spirit of Houston.

The community is invited to submit nominations on Memorial City's Facebook page - Facebook.com/MemorialCityMall - and explain why their pick is Houston's Best Worker.

- The nominee with the most likes will win the honor of Houston's Best Worker and a $250 Vallone's gift card
- The nominee with the second most likes will receive a $150 Vallone's gift card
- The nominee with the third most likes will receive a $100 Vallone's gift card

"Houston is a city filled with hard workers that demonstrate leadership, initiative, determination, service to the community, said Harry Hadland, VP Retail and Hospitality Property Management at MetroNational." We are proud to honor the local workforce through this contest and look forward to celebrating the winners."

The contest runs from September 1 through September 30.
