Gateway Memorial City Father's Day Special | IN THIS ISSUE

WHAT DAD REALLY WANTS

Gateway Memorial City has all you need to make it a memorable Father's Day. As the new hub of Houston's culinary scene, Gateway is home to everything from fine dining to fine gifts.

(947 Gessner / I-10 at Gessner next to the Memorial Hermann Tower)

Vallone's

Vallone's suggestion for Dad is their signature 55-day aged Bone-In Ribeye, named "one of the best steaks in Houston." Conceived by Houston restaurant legend Tony Vallone and protégé Scott Sulma, this modern classic is its namesake's latest entry in Houston's expanding fine dining scene.

The restaurant features a technique-driven approach to dry-aged steak and chops, fresh seafood, and Tony Vallone's signature house-made pastas.

Churrascos

A favorite with dads, Churrascos, is synonymous with the Latin food movement in Houston, creating unforgettable meals that pair lesser-known exotic ingredients of the Americas with classic and contemporary culinary techniques.

COMMUNITY SPOTLIGHT

SBISD Running for the Arts

Memorial City has been a proud supporter and host of Spring Branch Independent School District's Running for the Arts since 1992. On May 2, the south side of Memorial City Mall was flooded with more than 3,000 participants for this year's race, which benefits the Spring Branch Education Foundation. The Foundation provides financial resources to enhance the quality of education for all SBISD students through mentoring, arts education, and academic enrichment programs.
