

Ultimate Holiday Guide

TO MEMORIAL CITY

Introduced in 2012, Memorial City's dazzling holiday lights mark an iconic destination for Houstonians during November and December. The lights and décor span the majority of the 265-acre mixed-use development, featuring festive decorations at Memorial City Mall, Gateway, The Westin, and several area office buildings. Additionally, more than 200 trees along Gessner, Memorial City Way and Katy Freeway are illuminated, and numerous elegant lighting features accent the walkways throughout the Memorial City. As a crowning touch, the mall entrance nearest American Girl boasts the tallest Christmas trees in Texas, standing at a breathtaking 92 feet tall!

MEMORIAL CITY

Lights

6:00 PM | SATURDAY | NOVEMBER 14

Memorial City is truly your home for the holidays, with great shopping, fine dining, and fun family experiences that are sure to make lasting memories.

The holiday season at Memorial City officially kicks off on November 14 at 6:00 pm, with the fourth annual Memorial City Lights event for the community. The festive evening will once again be emceed by KPRC Local 2's Rachel McNeill. The entertainment lineup this year is headlined by the Houston Symphony, TUTS Humphreys School of Musical Theatre and everyone's favorite, the Memorial City Reindeer Drumline.

The star of the show will be the 1.5 million Memorial City lights that produce more than 90,000 watts of pure holiday joy and cheer. The lights will be turned on for the entire holiday season starting November 14 and running through the end of the year.
