

MEMORIAL CITYZEN

JULY 2016

Summer in the City

When the weather gets hot, things get extra cool at Memorial City. This July, we've got a hot air balloon All-American celebration, fun and interesting activities for kids, new stores to explore, more great food to try and our second Coffee & Cars event. We've also got a preview of exciting new things on the horizon. Let's go!

The Square is Taking Shape

Maybe you've noticed the construction taking place on the west side of Memorial City Mall, behind the Cheesecake Factory. We're moving along at a brisk pace to bring you The Square at Memorial City, scheduled to open this fall. The Square is a 4,000 square foot outdoor venue and green space that will be used for concerts, events, movies, group exercise classes and family fun. With cool water features and a giant 28 ft. X 14 ft. high-definition video screen, The Square will be the new home for arts and culture on Houston's west side. Also, accompanying The Square will be a brand-new Maggiano's Little Italy, the chain's third Houston location and a wonderful addition to our culinary offerings.

Take a Tour

SUSHI + SAKE SUNDAY

Come experience an intimate evening of Japanese cuisine and sake with KUU as Chef Adison Lee applies his training with master sushi chef Nobu Matsuhisa and his own signature style to create exquisite edible works of art that delight the eyes and the palate equally. The special omakase (chef's choice) menu will feature the freshest seafood, flown in from Japan's best fish market, the highest quality Wagyu beef and beautiful seasonal produce. Expert sommelier Ricky Cheung provides perfect sake pairings to complement Chef Lee's menu.

Pause for Remembrance

In partnership with the Holocaust Museum Houston, handcrafted beautiful butterflies from around the world will be on display in museum cases at the Air Liquide Center at Memorial City as part of The Butterfly Project Exhibit. Made by children, the butterflies memorialize the 1.5 million children who died in the Holocaust and the loss of their talents and possibilities. The butterfly – with its story of rebirth and transformation into new life – has now become a symbol of freedom from oppression, intolerance and hatred. The exhibit will be up until September 30.

MONDAY - FRIDAY
7:00 am - 6:00 pm

New Additions

Life at Memorial City just got a whole lot sweeter – with the opening of Popfancy Pops and Tout Suite bakery café. Popfancy Pops are handcrafted daily using market fresh ingredients and organic sweeteners. These incredible tasting ice pops are made using fresh produce hand-selected at the peak of season, so the flavor menu changes often to reflect their green-thumb approach to cooking.

After much anticipation, Houston-based Tout Suite has opened a chic new bakery café in the mall, near The Fireplace and Ice Skate USA. Tout Suite's full menu includes breakfast items, soups, salads, sandwiches, coffees and delicious desserts. The eatery strives to offer only the highest-quality local ingredients, and their vendors share the same vision to help them create the best food and beverages for their patrons.
